Sask. Open Entry Deadline:
Thursday October 21, 2021

Event Descriptions:

Open Singles

All players will be placed in a round robin (RR) and play every person within their group. The top player in each RR group will advance to the Championship division. 2nd in the each RR group will advance to B division. All other players will play in the C division.

Open Doubles

This event will be played as a single knockout. Due to logistics, this event will be played throughout the day whenever players are not committed to playing a match.

Age Events

6 or more entries: Players will be placed in round robin pools for qualifying in all events.

Depending on time, gym space and the number of entries, one (1) or two (2) players will advance to a single knockout round. Final decision on number of players advancing will be left up to the referee.

5 or less entries: Round Robin Final.

U200 Event

All players entered will be placed into a round robin. The top player in each RR group will advance to the Division A single knockout round. Remaining players will be placed into Division B single knockout. A Division C may be added if there are sufficient entries. Final decision on number of players advancing will be left up to the referee.

5 or less entries: Round Robin Final.
